

Everything Formation Testing

Thursday 14th December 2017

The Geological Society, Burlington House, London

Call for Abstracts

Submission Date: 31st October 2017

On Thursday 14th December 2017 the London Petrophysical Society will be holding a one-day seminar entitled Everything Formation Testing at the Geological Society, Burlington House, London. The day will consist of a series of themed talks, each lasting around 30 minutes with five minutes for questions. We are looking for talks on Everything Formation Testing, including Best Practices, Data QC, Case Studies, Integration of Formation Testing Data into Reservoir Models.

This is a Call for Abstracts for presentations from Oil & Gas Companies, Service Companies, Independent Consultants, Academia and other interested parties, on topics related to Formation Testing

The seminar is intended for general interest (as opposed to sales or marketing) and of an introductory level for people unfamiliar with the intricacies of Petrophysics. We request that the talks are kept at a scientific level, with the use of generic rather than trade names.

Abstracts should be up to 300 words/one page of A4 and may include one or two illustrations, submitted in Word Document format.

Please send your abstracts to Jenny Rastogi, Email: Jrastogi@slb.com, or any member of the LPS Committee, by the 31st October 2017. You can also contact Joanne Tudge if you have any questions, suggestions or to express interest in presenting.

£150 for delegates (Speakers exempt)

(LPS is not VAT registered)

Students can register for free

Includes lunch and post-seminar wine and savouries.

Doors open at 9am.
